LOGLINE: The Greatest Story Never Told

SYNOPSIS: The lives of childhood sweethearts José Salomón and María Natán are turned upside-down when they learn that she is pregnant with The Second Coming of Christ.

MAIN CHARACTERS

José Salomón

Pizza delivery driver who has to rethink his "professional slacker-dom" after he learns María is pregnant.

María Natán

Engineering Intern at the Clark County Water Reclamation District and waitress at her parents' café, she has to rethink her lofty goals.

Jesús Salomón

The Second Coming. Enough said.

SUPPORTING CHARACTERS

Aña and Joaquín Natán

Cuban immigrants, owners of Ana and Joaquín's Havana, and María's parents. Aña is the level-headed one; Joaquín is the grump.

Santiago Salomón

Salvadoran immigrant, and José's widowed father. Like María, he is frustrated by his son's lack of direction.

Balthazar, Caspar, and Melchior Giudìa

Brooklyn-born owners of Three Wise Guys Pizza, and José's bosses. The 4th generation master pizzaioli are like their creations: crusty on the outside, soft on the inside.

Jéanne Le Baptiste

María's OB/GYN at La Paz Community Clinic. The Harvard-trained St. Lucia native is the calm in the middle of any storm.

Luqa Sakib

Director of Obstetrics and Gynecology at La Paz Community Clinic. A native of Jordan, he is a bit overwhelmed by his position.

Mark Giordano

CEO of La Paz Community Clinic. Your typical loyal, goodhearted, stressed-out paper-pusher.
